A black and white manga-style illustration depicting a massive mecha, Anavel Gato, floating in space. The mecha is shown from a low angle, emphasizing its scale. It has a boxy, industrial design with a prominent head, a long barrel extending from its chest, and large, segmented limbs. In the background, a large, complex space station or orbital structure is visible, along with smaller debris and a bright star. The overall scene conveys a sense of immense power and a high-stakes conflict.
